STADIUM/GAMEDAY

HORNET STADIUM

- Originally built in 1969, Hornet Stadium is the home for Sacramento State football. The facility has a capacity of 21,195.
- A new playing surface was installed prior to the 2021 season. The Sprinturf surface features the yardage numbers in Sacramento State's font, the Big Sky Conference logos stitched into the field and new gold end zones. The surface also has a shock pad beneath it and an infill which is designed to reduce heat.
- Hornet Stadium has served as the home of several professional football teams including the Sacramento Surge of the World League, the Sacramento Gold Miners of the Canadian Football League and Sacramento Mountain Lions of the United Football League.
- The stadium has also hosted the 2000 and 2004 U.S. Olympic Track and Field Trials and four NCAA Div. I Outdoor Track and Field Championships (2003, 2005, 2006, 2007).
- The stadium is surrounded by The Well to the north and the Broad Athletic Fieldhouse to the south. The Well is Sacramento State's student recreation and health center. It opened in 2010 (expanded in 2021) and features a large weight room, indoor spaces for basketball, volleyball, racquetball and soccer, a rock climbing wall and an elevated running track.
- The Broad Athletic Fieldhouse is the home to Hornet football and track and field. Built in 2008, it includes coaches offices, meeting spaces, locker rooms, training rooms and weight rooms for the teams.

GAMEDAY

- The celebration of Hornet football begins well before kickoff with a lively tailgate party outside of Hornet Stadium. Fans then greet the team for Hornet Walk which includes the Sacramento State marching band, cheer and dance teams.
- The 2026 season will see the Sacramento State student section moved to the east side of the stadium, the hospitality area flipped to the south end zone and the end zone seating moved to the north end.

SEASON OUTLOOK

QUARTERBACKS

- Sacramento State does not return a quarterback from last season's roster but the team will still have a familiar face under center in 2026. Carson Conklin returned to the program during the spring after spending the 2025 campaign at Fresno State. Conklin redshirted with the Hornets in 2023 and became the team's starter for the majority of the 2024 year. That year, he set school freshman records with 2,876 passing yards and 28 touchdowns on the way to finishing third in the Jerry Rice Award (the top FCS freshman). Conklin had four games with at least 300 passing yards, including 389 against UC Davis. He enters 2026 ranked 12th in school history with 3,620 passing yards and is tied for sixth with 34 TD passes.
- While at Fresno State, Conklin appeared in six games. He helped the Bulldogs to a win at Boise State which snapped the Broncos' national-leading 16-game home winning streak.
- Jackson Sharman comes to the Hornets after three seasons at Idaho State. The redshirt junior appeared in seven games with the Bengals where he completed 35-of-61 passes. A native Californian, Sharman prepped at Torrance West HS where he passes for 1,800 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior.
- Jalen Patterson joined the Sacramento State program in the spring following a redshirt season at New Mexico State. Patterson was three-star recruit out of San Jacinto HS and one of the top dual-threat QBs in the state. As a senior, he led the Mountain Pass League with 1,545 passing yards and also rushed for 650 yards and 12 touchdowns.
- The team will add a pair of additions in the fall. Brian Salazar earned second team all-conference honors at Citrus JC in Glendora, Calif. That season, he threw for a school-record 3,210 yards and 36 touchdowns while completing 63.4 percent of his passes. Salazar had at least one TD pass in all 11 of his games and had multiple passing touchdowns in 10 contests. He set his season high with 432 passing yards and six touchdowns against Santa Barbara City JC.
- Liam Meeker will be a true freshman in the fall and joins the team along with his twin brother, tight end Luke Meeker. Liam was a three-star recruit out of Mira Costa HS in Manhattan Beach, Calif. He earned all-conference honors after throwing for 1,809 yards and 16 touchdowns and also rushing for 501 yards and eight TDs.

RUNNING BACKS

- Last season Sacramento State set its school record and was second in the FCS by averaging 262.6 rushing yards per game. The team totaled 3,151 yards which ranked second in program history and scored 39 rushing touchdowns. However, the team returns just 4.8 percent of that production and has only two backs which were on the 2025 team back for this season.
- Jamar Curtis was injured for most of the year but returned healthy for the final game of the season against UC Davis where he rushed for 105 yards and touchdown. Curtis enters 2026 with 3,214 career rushing yards — the second highest total in all of NCAA Div. I (FBS/FCS). The Walford, Md., native has tallied 17 career 100-yard performances and has 11 games with multiple touchdown runs.
- Curron Borders rushed for 361 yards in 2024 and was poised for a breakout campaign last season before an injury sideline him for the entire season. Borders completed the rehab process and returned for a productive spring.
- The team will get a boost with a pair of four-year transfers. Davion Godley rushed for 1,142 yards and eight touchdowns in two seasons at Weber State. This past season, he led the team with 73.1 yards per game and set his career high with 193 rushing yards against Butler. Cincere Rhaney was a three-star recruit out of high school before committing to San Diego State. He amassed 4,603 yards and 50 touchdowns in his career while averaging 8.2 yards per carry.
- Junior college transfer Bryant Collins will add depth and experience to the room. Collins rushed for 936 yards and 12 touchdowns at West LA JC in 2025, was named first team all-state Region IV and was a unanimous first team all-league selection. As a freshman, he was league MVP with 1,117 yards and nine touchdowns in eight games.
- True freshmen Isaiah Ene and Montrell Rice join the program after decorated high school careers. Ene was a three-star recruit of nearby Granite Bay HS. He rushed for 4,788 yards and 71 touchdowns in four varsity seasons. As a senior, he was the Sacramento Bee Large School Player of the Year. Rice rushed for 1,740 yards and 18 touchdowns as a senior at Tennyson HS in Hayward, Calif. He set his season high with 306 yards and three touchdowns against Newark Memorial HS.

SEASON OUTLOOK

WIDE RECEIVERS

- With just four returning players who caught a combined eight passes for Sacramento State last season, the wide receiving corps will have a new look in 2026. The unit features 13 total players made up of five returners, a pair of four-year and JC transfers and four true freshmen.
- The returners are made up of senior Jace Wilson, junior Onterio Smith, Jr., sophomores Ajon Bryant and Jaxon Fresques and redshirt freshman Tre Fernandez. Wilson played in 11 games, starting four during his first year with the Hornets after transferring from UTSA. He finished the season with three receptions for 56 yards, including a 45-yarder against Central Arkansas. Smith caught two passes for 16 yards and also had an 18-yard rush last season. Bryant had a great start to the year as he averaged 23.0 yards per touch (two rushes/two receptions) before an injury ended his season. Fresques did a little of everything for the team, catching a pass, completing two, returning punts and kicks and making tackles on special teams.
- Matt Coleman and Raiden Brown are the two four-year transfers. Coleman spent the previous four years at San Jose State where he played in 36 games and had 66 receptions for 651 yards and three scores. He had at least 12 receptions in his three active seasons and set career highs with 12 catches for 119 yards against South Florida in The Hawaii Bowl following the 2024 season. Brown returns to his home state of California after three years at Idaho State. He caught 46 passes for 464 yards for the Bengals from 2024-25.
- Kenyon Shabazz and Khai Taylor are both natives of Northern California. Shabazz graduated from Grant HS in Sacramento and played 2025 at College of San Mateo where he had 17 catches for 178 yards and two TDs. Taylor posted 44 receptions for 766 yards and 10 TDs at Diablo Valley JC and was named first team all-region and all-league. He was a three-star recruit out of Pittsburg HS who began his collegiate career at Boise State.
- Dezmyn Hardy is the lone freshman who joined the program in the spring. Hardy was a three-star recruit at Calabasas HS and finished his senior season with 1,006 all-purpose yards and 15 touchdowns. Carlton Perrilliat was a first team all-league selection at Salesian Prep who led the team with 49 receptions for 944 yards and 19 touchdowns. Matthew Auau posted 48 grabs for 636 yards and six touchdowns at Edison HS in Southern California while Kenneth Peevy amassed 733 yards and four scores while averaging 17.5 yards per reception at St. Pius X-St. Matthias Academy.

OFF. LINE/TIGHT ENDS

- The Hornets feature four players who have started Div. I games on the offensive line, making the unit one of the most experienced on the team. Returners Bryson Summers and Jeremiah Stallworth and transfers Vae Soifua and Shontrail Key will look to lead a group of 20 offensive linemen during the year.
- Summers is the most experienced Hornet having played in 23 games over the past two seasons. The senior is capable of playing all five positions on the line and has started a pair of games at guard and tackle during his Sacramento State career. Stallworth played in six games as a true freshman, starting three when the team used a sixth offensive lineman.
- Soifua is no stranger to the Hornets, having faced Sacramento State while playing for Weber State. Soifua was a three-star recruit out of high school who redshirted at BYU in 2022 before playing in 16 games for Weber State over the next three years. Key also had a winding path the Capital City as he spent 2021 and 2022 at Arizona, 2023 at Grambling State and 2024 and 2025 at Incarnate Word. He has played in 21 games over the last three years.
- The team also returns senior Elijah Ortiz and Brandon Sousa, juniors Davis May, DeAnthony Sheffield and Richard McKay, sophomores Luke Slater and Giovanni Kovacs and redshirt freshman Jaxon Moore.
- Sacramento State bolstered its depth with the addition of UCLA transfer Garrison Blank who was a three-star recruit at Rocklin HS. The team also added five junior college players comprised of Jamin Guilbert (American River), Hayden Frazier and Dylan Spencer (Fullerton JC), Alex Kenward (Iowa Central) and Shaan Lathan (San Jose City).
- The freshman class is made up of Jeremiah Ponce and three-star recruit Daniel Mataele.
- Tight end Jordan Williams is the leading returning receiver on the team. Williams played in all 12 games a year ago and finished the season with 15 catches for 170 yards and a touchdown.
- Kyle Koontz returns to the program after playing 2025 at Houston Christian where he had 10 receptions for 75 yards and a touchdown. Elijah Huddle and Davis Ambeuhl will also be back for their second year with the program.
- Newcomers to the group are comprised of freshmen Jahlil Lindsey, Jack Hodge and Luke Meeker and four-year transfer Cedric Anton.

SEASON OUTLOOK

DEFENSIVE LINE

- Seniors Xavier Williams, Malik Tullis and Miles Bailey will guide a defensive front which features 17 players for the Hornets in 2026. Williams returns for his seventh year with the program and is coming off a 2025 campaign which saw him credited with 32 total tackles, including 8.5 for loss and six sacks. Williams has played in 37 games during his career but has also seen his 2020 season canceled and missed all of 2021 and 2024 due to injuries.
- Tullis appeared in nine games during his first year with the Hornets after transferring from Eastern Michigan. That total included four TFLs and a sack. Bailey played in all 12 games a year ago and finished the season with 17 total tackles.
- Brodie Tagaloa and Malachi Kindle also return to the unit. Tagaloa started the season opener but was injured in the game, costing him the remainder of the year. Kindle appeared in seven games as a true freshman and concluded the year with five tackles.
- Four four-year transfers and four junior college transfers will add depth to the defensive line. Nick Dimitris comes from Florida A&M where he had 19 total tackles, three for loss, and a sack in two seasons with the Rattlers. Isiah Chala played in five games at Fresno State in 2025 and had a pair of tackles against Southern. Jamel Howard spent the three previous seasons at Wisconsin where he redshirted in 2023. Will Weber returns to California after playing the 2025 season at UTEP. Prior to that, Weber was an all-conference player at San Jose City JC.
- The JC transfers are comprised of Kaden Briggs, Austin Chambers, Austin Aten, Collin Kallhoff and Jadakiss Vaokakala. Briggs was a three-star prospect out of Holmes CC in Goodman, Miss. Chambers and Kallhoff played together at Iowa Central CC. Chambers had 21 tackles, including three for loss while Kallhoff finished the year with 12 stops. Aten is a local product who attended American River JC but did not compete in football in 2025. A graduate of McClatchy HS in Sacramento, he had 79 tackles with 13 TFLs in two varsity seasons. Vaokakala posted 59 tackles in two years at Citrus JC.
- True freshmen Peyton McCutcheon, Federico Cobarubio and Devyn Blake will make the transition to the college game after all three were three-star prospects by 247Sports. Blake enrolled early at Sacramento State after recording 126 tackles in three varsity seasons. Cobarubio was also with the Hornets during the spring, gaining valuable reps. McCutcheon was the Moore League Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

LINEBACKERS

- The 2025 season for Sacramento State linebackers could be summed up as "what if". The Hornets only had their projected top two linebackers on the field together for one half during the year. Despite that, the group managed to produce two of the top three tacklers on the team, three of the top five and four of the top 10.
- Derek Houston and Alex Rocha are the top returners at the interior positions and both are hoping for a healthy 2026. Houston finished the season with 32 total tackles in just six games (5.3 per game). Rocha owns the highest-returning total on the team with 49 stops in eight games, including 4.5 for loss.
- The depth at inside linebacker is arguably the best on the team with returners Diego Davis and KJ Jefferson returning to the unit. Davis played in all 12 games and tallied 27 total tackles, with two for loss. Jefferson appeared in seven games as a true freshman, splitting time between safety and linebacker.
- The quartet will be joined by redshirt freshman Jackson Cahoon, Fresno State transfer Tim Thomas and junior college transfer Dante Antonini. Thomas spent four years with the Bulldogs and recorded 16 tackles. He was a three-star recruit out of Lincoln HS in Stockton, Calif. Antonini recorded 146 stops in two seasons at Santa Rosa JC.
- Four freshmen will also attempt to work their way into the rotation. Leki Holani was a three-star prospect at Santa Margarita HS and had 91 tackles as a senior. Jiah Walls comes from Orlando, Fla., where he had 139 tackles in 2026 for Evans HS. Iosefa Lealofi was the Victorville Daily Press Football Athlete of the Year following 120 tackles, including 26.5 for loss. Pheta Tofaeono had 187 career tackles and 97 as a senior at Pittsburg HS.
- Fata Puloka is the only outside linebacker on the team who has seen time on the field for the Hornets. Puloka played in all 12 games a year ago and was credited with 43 tackles which ranked fifth on the team. He has already appeared for Sacramento State in 28 career games and has 74 career tackles.
- After transferring from Maryland, Dylan Gooden missed all of last season with an injury and is expected to be healthy prior to camp beginning. Darson Jeanty comes from Lafayette where he posted 56 tackles in three seasons with 33 coming in 2025. Ivan Moore, Jr., will enter 2026 as a sophomore following two seasons at Northern Illinois.

SEASON OUTLOOK

DEFENSIVE BACKS

- A new-look secondary will feature nine cornerbacks and 12 safeties in 2026. Of that group only six players were on the Sacramento State roster a year ago and just one started more than one game.
- Elias Mullican is the longest tenured Hornet in the defensive backfield. Mullican has made 13 starts at cornerback, including three a year ago. He recorded 13 tackles in 2026 and had 28 the year prior. The junior also has a pair of interceptions and nine PBUs in his career.
- Sophomore Adam Taylor and redshirt freshman Caleb Reese also return at cornerback. Taylor redshirted in 2024 and was poised for a large role with the team in 2025 before an injury ended his season after just three games. Reese played in the final four games of the year as a true freshman.
- The Hornets turned to the transfer portal to add some depth at the position with Dionte Thornton coming from Portland State, Malikai Nichols from Saint Francis and Nikko Klemm from Arizona State. Thornton, who stands 6-4, played in all 12 games for PSU and finished the year with 34 tackles and five PBUs.
- Junior college transfer Kyle Gurganious and freshman Tim Edwards, Jr., will also be part of the unit. Gurganious prepped at Sacramento's Inderkum HS and then played one season at American River JC where he had 23 tackles in 10 games. Edwards was a member of the Hornet track team, earning all-conference honors in the 400.
- Junior Diesel Gordon, sophomore Warren Smith, Jr., and redshirt freshman Naytel Mitchell make up the returners at safety. Gordon started one of his nine games and tallied six tackles and three PBUs. Smith moved from cornerback in the spring and had 10 stops in 2026.
- Boogsie Silvera brings collegiate experience after stops at Charleston Southern, McNeese and South Florida where he combined for 179 career tackles. Donovan Turner transferred from Illinois while Amari Wallace was part of the Miami (FL) team which played in the FBS National Championship.
- Others looking to compete for a spot at safety include transfers Qualyn McQueen (Nebraska-Kearney), Noah King (Colorado) and Keyon Mills (Pacific (OR)), JC transfer Miles Tucker (San Mateo) and true freshman Chakai Scott and Joshua Holani.

SPECIALISTS

- The Hornets will only bring back one starting specialist from 2025 but do have the luxury in it being the team's leading scorer Grant Meadors. The kicker finished the year with 87 total points after making 12-of-15 field goal attempts and 51-of-53 PATs. Meadors earned Big Sky Special Teams Player of the Week honors during the year after making four field goals, including a season-long 42-yarder, against Northern Colorado. He concluded the year ranked fourth in school single-season history in extra points and was just one field goal shy of moving into a tie for ninth in program history.
- Meadors will compete with true freshman Saul Marks who was an all-state selection at Serra HS. Marks made three field goals of at least 50 yards and added 58 touchbacks on kickoffs.
- For the first time in three years, Sacramento State will be looking for a new punter following the graduation of Cal McGough. Senior Mike Melanson and redshirt freshman Hamish Adams were both with the team in 2025 but did not appear in a game. Transfer Jay Brockhaus comes from Southeastern (FL) where he was an all-conference selection as a freshman. Brockhaus boasts a career-long 73-yard punt which came in 2023.
- JC transfer Kellan Sutton and true freshman Caden Sim are the two long snappers on the roster. Sutton won a pair of California state titles while a member of College of San Mateo. Sim prepped at Verrado HS in Buckeye, Ariz., and was ranked a 4.5 star long snapper by Kohl's Kicking.
- Jaxon Fresques and Ajon Bryant are the only returning players with experience returning punts and kicks for the Hornets. Fresques was the team's primary punt return in 2025 as he had five attempts with a long of 23 yards. He also returned five kickoffs with a long of 18. Bryant had six kick returns in 2024 with a best of 39 yards.
- Jamar Curtis did return kickoffs at Lafayette as a freshman and had a long of 68 yards.

THE COACHES

ALONZO CARTER

Head Coach | First Year | Cal State East Bay, '16

AT SACRAMENTO STATE

- Alonzo Carter was named the 14th head football coach in Sacramento State history on Dec. 15, 2025.

AT ARIZONA

- Joined the Arizona staff prior to the 2024 season. Served as the assistant head coach and running backs coach.
- In 2026, the Wildcats went 9-3 in the regular season and will play in the Trust & Will Holiday Bowl on Jan. 2. The team rushed for 2,143 yards and 20 touchdowns and was led by Ismail Mahdi who had 826 yards and four scores. That effort helped Mahdi earn all-Big 12 Conference honors.
- In his role as assistant head coach, he aided in the administration of the program, led practices and meetings in the head coach's absence and represented the team at campus and community events.

AT SAN JOSE STATE

- Was a member of the Spartans football coaching staff from January 2017-2023. Served as the running backs coach and added the duties of assistant head coach in 2021.
- During Carter's final season at San Jose State (2023), running back Kairee Robinson finished second in the Mountain West Conference with a career-high 1,194 rushing yards and led the conference with a career-high 18 rushing touchdowns.
- Carter's running backs played a large role in helping the Spartans go 7-1 overall in 2020, win the Mountain West title and end the season ranked 24th in the AP Poll. The San Jose State backs averaged 4.5 yards per rush and became one of the first two teams in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) history to complete a season without losing a fumble by a ball handler on offense, defense, and special teams.

AT CONTRA COSTA JC

- Was head coach at Contra Costa JC from 2010-16.
- Carter led the team to four conference titles and a pair of bowl victories.
- In 2012, his team won the Bay Valley Conference, he was named the league coach of the year as well as the CCCFA Region II Coach of the Year.

- He added a second BVC title the following season and then won Pacific 7 Conference titles in 2014 and 2015. The team advanced to win the Living Breath Foundation Bowl in 2012 and 2014.

AT HIGH SCHOOL

- Head coach at McClymonds High School in Oakland, Calif., for seven years (1999-06) where he won three CIF Oakland Section titles.
- He was also the head coach at Berkeley HS for three seasons (2007-09) and the head track and field coach at McClymonds High School for 13 years. Overall, he owns a 129-69-3 record as a head coach.

OFF THE FIELD

- During the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic and up to the start of the delayed season, Carter became a national figure through his West Coast Zoom clinics — weekly sessions involving hundreds of football coaches.
- Rooted in listening, learning and networking, he relied on his professional connections and hosted engaging Zoom calls lasting up to seven hours, either once or twice a week. For his use of the Zoom technology platform, he received a 2020 Zoomtopia award for innovation — emphasis on diversity: bridging the divide.
- In August 2020, he was named to the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches (NCMFC) executive committee. The organization's goal is to identify and groom coaches of color and create a list of coaching candidates for upward mobility. The NCMFC recognized his organizational commitment through his recruitment of more than 100 new members, providing mentoring, and mock interview sessions with its MVP Advocate Award for 2020.
- Since August 2020, he assisted 26 NCMFC members that advanced to coaching positions of greater responsibility or visibility.
- Carter was inducted into the African American Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame in 2001, and the Contra Costa JC Hall of Fame in 2025.
- He holds coaching certifications from the American Football Coaches Association, the California Interscholastic Federation and the California Community College Athletic Association.

- Selected to participate in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship program in 2017 with the San Francisco 49ers.

PERSONAL

- Graduated from Cal State East Bay with a degree in African American studies in 2016.
- Member of the Pioneers' football and track and field teams while the school was known as Cal State Hayward.
- Was a choreographer and background dancer for MC Hammer from 1988-95.
- Carter is the father of four children: Alonzo Carter II, Alona Carter, Anthony Carter, and Kennedie Carter.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

"I have known Coach Carter for 25 years, and he is a tremendous leader of men. He brought an incredible amount of experience, leadership, and energy to our programs at both San Jose State and Arizona. I am grateful for his invaluable contributions over the last nine years. I love Coach Carter, and I am excited for what he will bring to Sacramento State, its football program, and its community."

- Brent Brennan, Head Coach, Arizona

"I've known Coach Carter for much of my coaching career, and he's consistently created opportunities for coaches to connect, grow, and mentor one another. I've watched his leadership elevate talent on the field, but what truly stands out is his mastery in mentoring young people off the field. Coach Carter emits positivity and joy to everyone around him, and I'm honored to call him both a great friend and mentor."

Kalani Sitake, Head Coach, BYU

"Coach Carter is a true leader of men. Our relationship spans more than 20 years, and he has been a valuable mentor in my growth as a coach. He has won at every stop, and that success will continue in Sacramento. As a native of the 916, I can't wait to see him build my hometown into a powerhouse."

Jamar Cain, Defensive Line Coach, Denver Broncos

"Hiring Alonzo Carter as head coach is a home-run hire. I've known Alonzo since 2000, and while he's a great football coach, he's even more impressive as a developer of men on and off the field. He truly cares about his players as people first — academically and personally — before worrying about football. That's why he has been successful everywhere he's been. Sacramento State has hired someone the entire campus will be proud to call 'Coach.'"

Jon Embree, Asst. Head Coach, Miami Dolphins

"Sacramento State has made a phenomenal hire in Alonzo Carter. In 2021, during one of the toughest times in our country's history, Coach Zo launched the West Coast Zoom Clinic, bringing hundreds of coaches together nationwide. He is a bridge builder, a visionary, a developer of talent, and a leader of men. He has excelled at every level — from high school to junior college to the highest levels of college football — and I have no doubt he will continue to excel as a Division I head coach. I'm honored to call him a big brother."

Willie Simmons, Head Coach, Florida International

"Sacramento State has hit a home run hiring my friend Alonzo Carter. He did an outstanding job as a head coach for many years, can coach at any level, and knows how to relate to people — especially young men — while winning with class. Alonzo is a builder of both men and programs. He also launched a Zoom initiative that helped minority coaches across the country, which I had the privilege to participate in many times. Like everything he touches, it was pure gold. I can't wait to watch my friend do his thing."

Mack Brown, College Football Hall of Fame Coach, Former Head Coach, Texas & North Carolina

"There is no coach who has had a greater impact on my life, and the lives of so many of my friends, than Alonzo 'Zo' Carter. Whether as a player or a person, no matter where you begin your journey with him, Coach Carter elevates your abilities, strengthens your belief, fuels your enthusiasm, and expands your understanding of what you're truly capable of. I'm excited to see Sacramento State flourish under his leadership. Get ready."

Nnamdi Asomugha, Former NFL All-Pro CB

"I'm confident Coach Zo will do an outstanding job at Sacramento State. He has tremendous leadership qualities and is a proven winner. He connects with people and gives so much of himself to the young men in his program to ensure their success — both in football and in life. Zo also embraced the opportunity to serve as an executive committee member of the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches, which I founded in 2020, and he has been a tremendous asset in advancing better hiring practices across the country. I'm truly happy for him and for Sacramento State."

Mike Locksley, Head Coach, Maryland; President & CEO, National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches

AT SACRAMENTO STATE

- Kris Richardson was hired as Sacramento State's Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Line Coach in January of 2019.
- During Richardson's first season, the Hornets went 9-4 overall, earned a share of the Big Sky Conference title and advanced to the FCS Playoffs for the first time in school history.
- His offensive line was led by Wyatt Ming and Nick Bianco who both earned all-conference honors. Ming, who was a first team selection at center, went on to play in the Hula Bowl All-Star Game.
- The unit surrendered just 16 sacks during the season and ranked among the top 10 in the FCS in sacks allowed per pass attempt. Additionally, the team rushed for 2,201 yards and amassed 6,033 yards of total offense.
- In 2021, the line was anchored by center Thomas Parker who was a first team all-Big Sky selection and earned All-America honors.
- Kooper Richardson (Kris' son) and Brandon Weldon also earned second team all-Big Sky.
- In 2022, Richardson's offensive line had four players earn all-Big Sky accolades with guards Jackson Slater and Weldon being named to the first team and tackle Troy Stiefel and center Nathan Mejia landing on the second team.
- The unit featured six different starters and paved the way to the team being the seventh-ranked rushing offense in the FCS and ranked third in total offense.
- Sacramento State averaged 5.41 yards per rush during the year and set the school record in rushing yards in a season with 3,163 yards while allowing just 16 sacks in 13 games.
- The following year, Richardson coached three offensive linemen to all-Big Sky honors. Slater returned to the first team and joined Jon Osterhout (1998-99) as the only offensive linemen in school history to earn the honor in consecutive years. Left tackle Ivan Garza and center Nathan Mejia each earned honorable mention.
- Despite starting eight players on the line during the year, the unit combined to surrender just 16 sacks in 13 games.
- In 2024, Richardson coached Jackson Slater to first team all-Big Sky accolades for the third consecutive season — making him the first offensive lineman in school history to do so.

- Slater competed at the Senior Bowl and NFL Combine before being drafted by the Tennessee Titans in the fifth round.
- Throughout the season, the offensive line battled injuries and were forced to start nine different players. Despite the heavy rotation, the unit responded by allowing just 14 sacks in 12 games.
- In 2025, Richardson coached Aidan Meek and Dean Abdullah to second team all-Big Sky honors.

AT FOLSOM HS

SUPPORT STAFF

JON OSTERHOUT

Chief of Staff
10th Season

Jon Osterhout returned to his alma mater in December 2025 as the assistant athletics director and chief of staff.

Osterhout was the head coach at American River JC for 12 seasons (2014-25), winning at least a share of the NorCal Conference title 10 times. He finished his career with an 88-39 overall record and took the team to 11 postseason appearances, including eight trips to the state playoffs.

From 2007-10, Osterhout was an assistant coach at Sacramento State for the second time in his career. As the recruiting coordinator, he produced the second-ranked FCS class in 2009 and the eighth-ranked in 2010. He also coached Zack Nash and Todd Davis who both went on to play in the NFL.

Osterhout served as a graduate assistant at Nebraska from 2006-07 where he worked with the defensive line and special teams. The team won the Big 12 North Division and played in the Cotton Bowl following his first season. While there, he coached first-round selection Adam Carriker, second-round choice Ndamukong Suh and fourth-round Jay Moore.

Osterhout's first stint at Sacramento State came from 2000-05 where he coached the offensive line and tight ends (2000-01) and defensive line (2002-06). He coached Marko Cavka to all-Big Sky honors and eventually a sixth-round selection in the NFL Draft.

Osterhout was a four-year starter for the Hornets beginning (1995, 1997-99). He was an FCS All-American as a senior and earned first team all-Big Sky honors his final two seasons. During that time, he anchored an offensive line which led the way for record-setting running back Charles Roberts. Osterhout was named the team MVP and Most Inspirational Player during his career as well as serving as a team captain. He went on to sign with the New York Giants and Washington Redskins. He was inducted into the Sacramento State Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

Osterhout holds an undergraduate degree from Sacramento State and a masters in kinesiology from Fresno Pacific.

Jon and his wife, Alison (a former Hornet volleyball student-athlete), are the parents to Hudson and Chelsea.

CHRIS PARRY

General Manager
Ninth Season

Chris Parry joined the Sacramento State staff in January of 2019 as the team's director of recruiting/player development. He also served as a defensive assistant on the field. He moved to assistant general manager prior to the 2025 season and was elevated to general manager prior to the start of the 2026 campaign.

Parry was part of a defensive coaching staff in 2019 which helped make Sacramento State the best team in the Big Sky in defensive pass efficiency and red zone defense. The Hornets allowed 132.1 fewer yards per game than in the previous season and increased its total takeaways by five. Off the field, the 2020 recruiting class was ranked as one of the best in the FCS as the team secured several three-star recruits.

Parry came to Sacramento State after coaching at Folsom High School since 2013. He was the running backs coach with the Bulldogs and helped the team earn California state championships in 2014, 2017 and 2018. Folsom's offense earned national attention during the period, setting several state records for yards and points. The team finished 2017 ranked 18th in the MaxPreps national poll and moved up to 17th in 2018.

From 2009-12, Parry worked at American River College in Sacramento. He began as the wide receivers coach in his first three years before shifting to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2012.

Parry also coached at Folsom HS from 2001-08 holding several different positions. His career also features stops at College of San Mateo (1987) and Mills HS (1985-86).

He graduated from Cal Poly with a bachelor's degree in electrical and electronics engineering in 1988.

OTIS AMEY

Dir. of Player Development/
Alumni Relations
First Season

Former Sacramento State All-American and NFL veteran Fred "Otis" Amey rejoined the Hornet program in December of 2025. Amey will serve as the Director of Player Development/Alumni Relations.

Amey starred for the Hornets from 2001-04. He remains the school record holder with 248 career receptions and 4,049 career receiving yards and is tied for second with 27 career receiving touchdowns.

Following his collegiate career, Amey played with the San Francisco 49ers where he returned a punt for a touchdown on his first NFL touch. He also played in the Arena Football League and CFL.

Outside of football, Amey is the Executive Pastor of Discipleship & Advancement Midtown Church.

He and his wife, Tyrienna (a former Sacramento State track athlete and Big Sky champion in the 200) are the parents to three children.

CHARLES GIBSON

Dir. of Operations
First Season

Charles Gibson joined the Hornet staff as the Director of Operations in June 2026. Gibson was previously held the same position at Alabama State during the 2025 season.

Gibson began his professional career in football as the quarterbacks/wide receivers coach at Morrow HS in Georgia. He began his association with Alabama State the following year as an offensive assistant.

Gibson moved to Beloit College in Wisconsin where he was the quarterbacks/wide receivers coach and the Director of Operations from 2020-21.

He returned to ASU as the offensive graduate assistant for the 2022 season.

The next year, Gibson was the wide receivers coach and director of operations at Huntington College in Montgomery, Ala., and remained there through the 2024 season.

Gibson earned his bachelor's in special education and teaching from Alabama State in 2020 and added a master's in applied technology in 2023.

OTIS YELVERTON

Dir. of Player Personnel
First Season

Longtime collegiate coach and player personnel administrator Otis Yelverton joined the Hornet program in the spring of 2026.

Yelverton most recently was the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach at Fresno City JC. He also served as the head coach at Contra Costa JC and Oakridge Military Academy. His 2021 Contra Costa team went 10-1 and won a bowl game. Yelverton's role in player personnel included stops at Florida and Alabama.

He played football at North Carolina A&T in Greensboro, N.C.

SUPPORT STAFF

AYDEN MEYER

Player Personnel Analyst
Second Season

Ayden Meyer is in his second season as a player personnel analyst at Sacramento State. Meyer will serve as the lead offensive analyst in 2026.

Meyer began his career in college athletics as a football scouting/recruitment assistant at Washington State. While working under head coach Jake Dickert, Meyer assisted on identifying and communicating with recruits while also aiding with on-campus recruiting. He added the role of football operations assistant at American River JC in Sacramento in the summer of 2023.

Meyer graduated from Washington State with a bachelor's degree in sport and fitness administration/management in 2024.

MOTRE LAMBERT

Player Personnel Analyst
Second Season

Montre Lambert joined the Sacramento State staff prior to the 2026 season as the defensive player personnel analyst.

He previously worked as a recruiting assistant at Arizona and was an intern at the 2024 Barstool Bowl and the 2025 Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl.

Lambert graduated from Arizona with a bachelor's in communications and a minor in sports management in 2025.

ISAIAH LEWIS

Recruiting Analyst
Second Season

Isaiah Lewis joined the Sacramento State coaching staff prior to the 2024 season. In his current role, Lewis assists with the team's recruiting efforts.

Lewis played collegiately at Colorado where he appeared in 43 games, starting 19. He was credited with 132 career tackles and three touchdowns and was twice named honorable mention all-PAC-12.

Following his time at Colorado, Lewis played the 2023 season with the Houston Gamblers of the USFL.

A Sacramento area native, Lewis prepped at Granite Bay HS where he earned all-metro honors while starring on both sides of the ball.

Lewis graduated from Colorado with a degree in communications and minors in ethnic studies and leadership studies in 2020. He added a master's in organizational leadership.

ANGELA LALWANI

Admin Assistant/
On-Campus Recruiting
First Season

Angela Lalwani is in her first season at Sacramento State as the football program's administrative assistant and on-campus recruiting coordinator. In her role, Lalwani handles the day-to-day-operations for head coach Alonzo Carter and organizes all efforts for on-campus recruiting visits.

Lalwani came to the Hornets in the spring of 2026 after serving as the Director of Operations at Northwestern State in 2025. While at NSU, she oversaw all office functions including travel, budget and purchasing and gameday operations.

Lalwani previously was an operations assistant at the American Bowl and Dream Bowl and also was a game operations and event management fellow at Mississippi State in 2024-25.

A former track & field/cross country student athlete, Lalwani began her collegiate career at Virginia State before transferring to Benedict College. After graduation she was a graduate assistant in track and field at South Carolina and a football operations assistant at Bowie State.

She returned to Benedict College as the graduate assistant for football operations for the 2023 season.

She earned her bachelor's degree in accounting/business management from Benedict College in 2022 and added a master's in sports management in 2024.

Longest Pass Play —

99 (TD) - Aaron Garcia to Greg Ochoa at Cal Poly (10/23/93)

Ricky Ray (left) holds the Edmonton Eskimo record for career completions, yards and touchdowns. He led the team to the 2005 Grey Cup title and currently ranks sixth in CFL history in career passing yards. He was traded to the Toronto Argonauts prior to the 2012 season.

Aaron Garcia (right) became the first professional quarterback to throw 1,000 career touchdowns. He also holds the Arena League record for TDs in a game and is second in all-time passing yards. He led the Jacksonville Sharks to the 2011 Arena Bowl title and was the league's Offensive Player of the Year.

DIV. II ALL-AMERICANS

BILL FULLER

1964 - Associated Press Little All-America (1st)

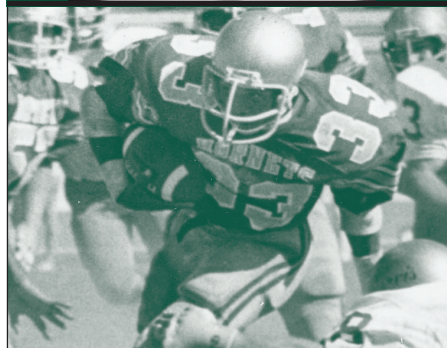

The first All-American in school history, Fuller played on both the offensive and defensive lines during his time with the Hornets. After earning all-conference honors during his first season, Fuller was named to the Associated Press Little All-America first team as a senior and also garnered UPI Little All-Coast accolades. He was also named first all-Far West Conference on both the offensive and defensive lines.

MIKE CARTER

1969 - Associated Press Little All-America (2nd)

Carter left Sacramento State as the career leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown catches despite playing only two seasons. The transfer from City College of San Francisco caught 50 passes for 728 yards and three TDs during his first season (1968). His breakout came the following year where he grabbed 60 balls for 1,106 yards and 14 scores. His 14 touchdown receptions stood as the school record for 44 years and he was the only 1,000-yard receiver for the first 28 years of the program. Carter went on to play in the NFL for the Green Bay Packers and San Diego Chargers.

JOHN FARLEY

1983 - Associated Press Little All-America (2nd)

Farley was a four-time first team all-conference selection at running back. He ended his career as the school leader with 3,862 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns. Farley was the first Hornet — and still one of three — to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive years. He had 1,137 yards and 13 TDs as a junior and followed that with 1,078 yards and 10 scores as a senior. Farley left Sacramento State with more than 1,900 yards than the next best career total. He was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

GREG ROBINSON

1985 - Associated Press Little All-America (2nd)

A two-year starter after transferring from Nevada, Robinson earned all-NCAC honors during both his seasons with the Hornets. Combined with Mike Black on the left side of the line to created one of the toughest offensive line combos in Div. II. The Hornets averaged 432.9 yards of total offense, including 233.1 on the ground, during his senior season. Was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft and played with the New England Patriots, Green Bay Packers and San Francisco 49ers.

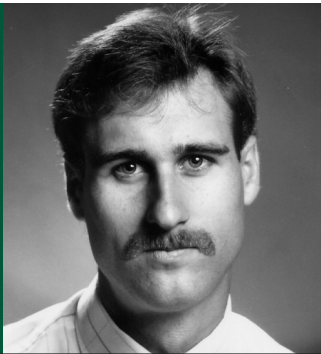

TROY MILLS

1991 - Associated Press Little All-America (1st)

Mills set the Sacramento State single-season record for all-purpose yards in 1991 with 2,445. He is the only player in school history to average over 200 all-purpose yards per game during his career and holds the school record at 203.5. Mills also ranks sixth in program history with 2,771 career rushing yards. As a senior, he amassed 1,668 yards and 17 touchdowns while averaging 7.5 yards per carry. Nicknamed the "Bounty Hunter", Mills came to Sacramento State after serving in the military. He continued his playing career with stops in the NFL and CFL.

DIV. II ALL-AMERICANS

JIM CROUCH

1991 - Associated Press Little All-America (1st)

Crouch set the then-school record with 13 field goals as a senior in 1991. He made 13-of-16 attempts to also set the Hornet record for field goal percentage at .812. In his two years with the team, Crouch scored 118 points which were the most by a Sacramento State kicker at the time. He was signed by the Buffalo Bills and later played for the Sacramento Gold Miners of the CFL.

JON KIRKSEY

1992 - Associated Press Little All-America (1st)

Kirksey took the stage during his senior season with the Hornets in 1992. The defensive lineman led Sacramento State with 11 tackles-for-loss and five sacks. He earned first team all-Western Football Conference honors after being credited with 54 total tackles. The transfer from Bakersfield College was selected in the eighth round of the NFL Draft following the year by the New Orleans Saints. He also saw action with the San Francisco 49ers, Arizona Cardinals and St. Louis Rams during his career.

ROD McMASTERS

1992 - Associated Press Little All-America (3rd)

The team's leading tackler in 1992, McMasters anchored the Sacramento State secondary from his free safety position. He finished the year with 83 total stops and added three interceptions, nine pass breakups and forced a pair of fumbles. Was a two-time all-Western Football Conference selection and accumulated 143 tackles in his two seasons with the team.

DIV. I ALL-AMERICANS

CHARLES ROBERTS

1998 - AFCA (1st), Associated Press (2nd), The Sports Network (2nd), CBS Sportsline Running Back of the Year

1999 - AP (1st), The Sports Network (1st), Teamlink (1st), Big Sky Offensive MVP

The most decorated player in Sacramento State's Div. I era, Charles Roberts burst onto the national scene during the 1998 season. After rushing for 587 yards as a freshman, Roberts set the then-NCAA Div. I-AA record with 2,260 rushing yards as a sophomore. That season, he carried the ball 386 times, which also set the school mark, and scored 19 touchdowns. He did not disappoint as junior, tallying 2,082 yards on 303 carries and rushing for a school record 22 touchdowns.

Roberts ended his collegiate career with 1,624 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior. When he left Sacramento State, he held the Div. I-AA records for career carries (1,124), career yards (6,553), single season yards, single-game yards (409) and 200-yard games (13).

Following his collegiate career, Roberts played eight seasons in the Canadian Football League. During that span, he rushed for 10,285 yards and 70 touchdowns. He was just the fifth player in CFL history to surpass 10,000 career yards and twice led the league in rushing. Roberts was a six-time CFL All-Star and was also named to the Winnipeg Blue Bombers' all-time team. He played his first seven seasons with the Blue Bombers before concluding his career with the B.C. Lions.

RYLAND WICKMAN

1998 - Associated Press (3rd)

The all-time tackles leader in Sacramento State history, Wickman ended his four-year career with 435 stops. The linebacker was the first Hornet to be named to the all-Big Sky Conference team, earning second team honors in 1996. As a junior, he set the school record with 154 tackles, including 16.0 for loss. As a senior, he was a first team all-Big Sky selection with 106 total tackles. Along with holding the career and single season tackle marks, Wickman also holds the top spot for career unassisted tackles (202) and forced fumbles (9). He also played professionally in the NFL, CFL and NFL Europe.

JON OSTERHOUT

1999 - The Sports Network (1st), Teamlink (1st), Associated Press (2nd)

One of the most dominating offensive linemen in school history, Osterhout helped pave the way for the nation's top rushing attack. As the starting left tackle, Osterhout was a two-time first team all-Big Sky selection. He was part of an offense which averaged 228.2 rushing yards in 1998 and 234.9 in 1999. Osterhout went on to sign with the Washington Redskins following his senior season before beginning his coaching career. He returned to the Hornets as an assistant coach.

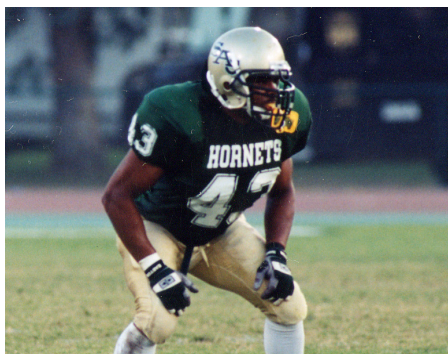

CHRIS KELLY

1999 - Teamlink (2nd)

In just two years, Chris Kelly became one of the top tight ends in Div. I-AA. Kelly was a first team all-Big Sky selection following both of his seasons. He began his career with 21 catches for 251 yards and three touchdowns in 1998. The following year, he led the team with 41 receptions for 603 yards and six TDs. Kelly's most memorable performance came at No. 3 Montana where he caught a school record four touchdown passes. Three of those four touchdowns came during a furious fourth quarterback comeback while the fourth came in overtime.

DIV. I ALL-AMERICANS

ANTHONY DAISLEY

2000 - Associated Press (3rd)

Daisley enjoyed two of the finest seasons by a Hornet linebacker during his time with the program. As a junior, Daisley recorded 89 total tackles, including a school record 25.0 tackles-for-loss. He was twice named national defensive player of the week and earned first team all-Big Sky honors. As a senior, Daisley added 100 tackles and moved into second place with 19.0 TFLs. His career total of 44.0 tackles-for-loss ranks third in school history and he was the first Hornet defensive player to twice be named first team all-Big Sky Conference.

TERENCE WAGNER

2001 - Football Gazette (HM)

A four-year starter on the offensive line, Terence Wagner never missed a game during his Hornet career, starting all 44 contests. Wagner helped anchor a line which averaged 202.7 rushing yards per game during his career. He earned all-Big Sky honors during his final three seasons and was named All-America as a senior. Following his collegiate career, Wagner played professionally with the New York Giants, New Orleans Saints and St. Louis Rams.

FRED AMEY

2002 - Football Gazette (HM)

2004 - AFCA (1st)

Amey holds nearly every career receiving record in school history. From 2001-04, Amey caught 248 passes for 4,049 yards and 27 touchdowns. His career yardage total is more than double any other player in school history. Amey also set the then-single season receptions record with 76 as a senior and the single-game mark with 15. He was a three-time first team all-Big Sky selection and went on to play with the San Francisco 49ers as well as stints in the Arena Football League, CFL and UFL.

RAMON PAYNE

2004 - Football Gazette (HM)

Payne began his four-year Hornet career as a safety but found his home at cornerback where he earned national recognition as a senior. That season, he earned first team all-Big Sky accolades after recording 63 tackles, including 6.0 tackles-for-loss. Payne also led the team with five interceptions, three of which came at Idaho State where he earned national defensive player of the week from The Sports Network. Overall, Payne ranks ninth in school history with 212 career tackles and is tied for 10th with seven interceptions.

MATT LOGUE

2005 - Football Gazette (HM), Co-Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year

The only Sacramento State player to be named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year, Logue ranks among the best in numerous defensive categories in Hornet history. The middle linebacker is first career fumble recoveries (5), second in unassisted career stops (181), second in career TFLs (45.5), and fourth in career tackles (306). Logue was a two-time all-Big Sky selection, including first team honors as a senior. That year, he led the Big Sky with 105 tackles (14.5 per game). Logue also had the ability to get into the backfield as three of his single-season efforts ranked among the top eight in school history following his career.

BRENT WEBBER

2006 - Football Gazette (3rd)

A four-year starter at safety, Webber first earned national recognition in 2004 when he was named Freshman All-America. He ended his career with 249 career tackles which places him sixth in school history. Webber also ranks among the career leaders at Sacramento State in unassisted tackles (10th, 117) and interceptions (T5th, 9). As a junior, he led Div. I-AA with 0.6 interceptions per game. His total of six over 10 games ties him for the fifth most in school history. Webber is also one of only five Hornets to be named all-Big Sky four times.

CYRUS MULITALO

2006 - Football Gazette (HM)

2007 & 2008 - The Sports Network (HM)

The only Hornet to be named All-America in three different seasons, Mulitalo left Sacramento State in 2008 ranked second in school history with 336 career tackles. As a sophomore, he led the Big Sky with 10.9 tackles per game (120 total) and was named honorable mention All-America and all-West Region. Mulitalo added 98 tackles in 2007 and 96 more in 2008. Along with being honored by The Sports Network following both of those years, he was also a first team all-Big Sky selection.

MIKE BRANNON

2007 - The Sports Network (HM)

A two-time first team all-Big Sky honoree and four-time all-Big Sky selection, Brannon is the Hornets' all-time leader in tackles-for-loss with 52.5 and sacks (27.5). The local product from Cordova High School began his career at defensive end before moving to linebacker prior to his junior season. That year, Brannon set career bests for total tackles (81), tackles-for-loss (18.0) and sacks (9.5) to earn All-America honors. As a senior, he continued to be one of the most disruptive players in the Big Sky with 12.5 TFLs, including 9.0 sacks.

TONY WASHINGTON

2008 - The Sports Network (3rd)

After catching 29 passes for 414 yards and three touchdowns as a junior, Washington had one of the most productive seasons as a receiver in school history. The senior set the school record with 83 receptions and 1,279 yards to earn first team all-Big Sky honors and third team All-America recognition. Washington also had 12 touchdowns during the year to rank second in school history. He had at least 100 receiving yards in six games and caught a touchdown in nine of the 11 contests. Three of those scores came in the team's 29-19 win over UC Davis.

CHRISTIAN CLARK

2009 - The Sports Network (2nd)

With 15.0 tackles-for-loss, including 10.0 sacks, Clark established himself as one of the top pass rushers in the FCS during his junior season. The defensive tackle was a force throughout the season, recording 44 total tackles — the most by a Hornet defensive lineman. Clark also had at least a half tackle-for-loss in nine of the team's 11 games. His biggest performance came in the team's victory over Northern Arizona where he had four sacks for a combined loss of 30 yards. The four sacks were the most by a Sacramento State player in school history.

ZACK NASH

2010 - The Sports Network (2nd), Associated Press (2nd)

2011 - AFCA (1st), Associated Press (1st), Walter Camp (1st), Phil Steele (2nd)

The all-time school leader in sacks, Nash was a two-time first team all-Big Sky selection at defensive end. As a senior, he became the first Hornet defensive player to earn first team all-AFCA honors. Nash combined for 31.5 sacks over his final two seasons and set the school single game record with 5.0 sacks against Idaho State in both 2010 and 2011.

JUSTIN WELDON

2013 - Associated Press (3rd)

Weldon was the first punter to earn All-America in Sacramento State's Div. I era after finishing fourth in the FCS with an average of 44.9 yards per punt. That mark easily set the Sacramento State single-season record and his career average of 44.2 is also the best by a Hornet. Against UC Davis, Weldon boomed a 78-yard punt which broke the school mark of 75 which was set in 1973.

TODD DAVIS

2013 - The Sports Network (2nd)

Davis led the Big Sky and ranked fifth nationally in the FCS with 10.9 tackles per game. His total of 131 stops were the fifth most in school single season history and he concluded his career with 351 total tackles to rank second in the Hornet record book. Davis was also a first team all-Big Sky selection and earned all-conference honors three times during his career.

DEANDRE CARTER

2014 - The Sports Network (1st), Walter Camp (1st), FCS ADA (1st), Associated Press (2nd)

Carter led the FCS and the Big Sky during the regular season with 1,321 receiving yards and 17 receiving touchdowns. His 99 receptions were also the most in the FCS and ranked second in league history. He also set school records in each category. Carter averaged 10.1 receptions and 139.2 yards in the eight league games. He earned national player of the week honors during the season after setting the school record with 16 receptions for 237 receiving yards and four touchdowns against Southern Utah.

DARNELL SANKEY

2015 - STATS, Inc. (1st), Walter Camp (1st), AFCA (1st), Associated Press (2nd)

Sankey ranked second in the Football Championship Subdivision and first in the Big Sky with 153 total tackles in 2015. His total was the second most in school history, placing him just one off the record set by Ryland Wickman in 1997. Along with 57 solo tackles, Sankey also had 9.0 tackles-for-loss, 3.5 sacks, 5 pass breakups and forced a fumble. During the year, he had at least 10 tackles in nine of the team's 11 games, including setting the school record with 27 stops at Weber State. That performance was also the most by an FCS player during the year.

DIV. I ALL-AMERICANS

BEN SORENSEN

2017 - Associated Press (3rd)

Sorensen led the Big Sky and ranked 10th in the FCS regular season with 10 sacks (1.00 per game). He spearheaded a Hornet defense which set the school Div. I-era record with 43 sacks and finished the season tied for second in the FCS sacks and ranked third in third-down defense. Sorensen concluded the season with 38 tackles, including 12.5 for loss. He also had seven pass breakups, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble. Those numbers helped him earn first team all-Big Sky Conference. He wrapped up his career ranked eighth in school history with 17.5 sacks and is sixth with 32.5 tackles-for-loss.

KEVIN THOMSON

2019 - AP (3rd), Stats Perform (3rd), HERO Sports (1st), Payton Award Finalist

Thomson was named the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year and one of four finalists for the Walter Payton Award. He had 3,835 yards of total offense in 12 games for an average of 319.6 yards which ranked fifth in the FCS. He accounted for 39 total touchdowns with 27 passing and 12 rushing and his 19.7 points responsible for per game ranked second in the league and fifth nationally. He threw for over 300 yards in six games and rushed for 100 yards in a pair of contests.

GEORGE OBINNA

2019 - AFCA (2nd), Associated Press (3rd), STATS (3rd)

Obinna set the Sacramento State single-season and career record for sacks as a senior. He finished the year with 46 total tackles, including 20.0 TFLs and 14.0 sacks. Obinna also had eight quarterback hurries and recovered a pair of fumbles. He recorded multiple sacks in five games with a season high of 2.5 at Fresno State. Obinna left Sacramento State as the all-time leader with 33.5 career sacks and is second in the program record book with 47.0 career tackles-for-loss.

ELIJAH DOTSON

2019 - HERO Sports (2nd)

Dotson led the team with 742 rushing yards and also had a team high 70 receptions for 702 yards to give him 1,445 all-purpose yards. The junior finished with 11 total touchdowns during the season with seven rushing and five receiving scores. He averaged 4.9 rushing yards per attempt and had three games with 100 rushing yards. He became the first Sacramento State running back to have 100 receiving yards in a game as he had 158 against Northern Colorado. Dotson caught at least two passes in all 13 games and had four or more receptions in 11 of the team's 12 regular season contests.

JOSIAH ERICKSON

2021 - HERO Sports (1st); Associated Press (3rd); Phil Steele (3rd)

Erickson finished his senior season with 53 total tackles, including a team-high 16.5 tackles-for-loss and 9.0 sacks. His TFL total placed him third in school single-season history and he tied for ninth in single-season sacks. Erickson had at least one TFL in 10 of the 11 games and recorded a sack in six of the eight Big Sky contests. The San Dimas, Calif., native finished his career with 34.5 tackles-for-loss to rank seventh all-time at Sacramento State. His 15.0 career sacks are the 10th most in program history.

MARSHEL MARTIN

2021 - AFCA (2nd)

2022 - Associated Press (2nd), Stats Perform (2nd), AFCA (2nd)

As a sophomore, Martin led the Hornets with 53 receptions and six receiving touchdowns in 2021 and ranked second on the team with 649 receiving yards in 11 games. He caught at least two passes in each of his games and had five or more receptions seven times. Martin had a pair of 100-yard games with 117 yards against Northern Arizona and 112 at UC Davis.

THOMAS PARKER

2021 - Walter Camp (1st)

Parker started 11 games during his senior season and was part of an offensive line which allowed just 15 sacks during the regular season while averaging 178.4 yards per game to help him earn first team all-Big Sky honors. He started 34 games during his career as a Hornet and played guard, tackle and center during his career.

KYLE SENTKOWSKI

2021 - Stats Perform (3rd), Phil Steele (4th)

2022 - Stats Perform (2nd), AFCA (2nd)

Set Hornet single-season record by making 21-of-25 field goals in 2021 and was also a perfect 39-of-39 on extra points. His .840 field goal percentage ranks third in school single-season history and was the best among kickers with more than 15 attempts. Was 12-of-14 on field goals of 40-plus yards with his only misses being from 48 and 50 yards. His longest field goal during the season was from 51 yards against Cal Poly which ranks sixth in program history.

MARTE MAPU

2022 - Associated Press (1st), Stats Perform (1st), AFCA (2nd)

Mapu started all 13 games as a senior and ranked second on the team with 76 total tackles, including 6.5 for loss. He added two interceptions, had four pass breakups, two quarterback hurries and forced a fumble. Mapu was credited with at least three tackles in all 13 games and had five or more in nine contests. He earned first team all-Big Sky Conference honors and was also named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year.

ASHER O'HARA

2022 - Stats Perform (3rd)

O'Hara accounted for 1,180 yards of total offense and 30 touchdowns during his senior season. The quarterback ranked second on the team with 937 rushing yards and scored a team-best 19 rushing touchdowns. He found the end zone in all 11 regular season games and rushed for multiple TDs six times. O'Hara also completed 81-of-111 passes for 873 yards and 11 touchdowns. He threw seven touchdowns over the final six games of the season, including three in the FCS Playoffs. His completion percentage of .730 set the school single-season record while pass efficiency of 171.7 ranks second.

DIV. I ALL-AMERICANS

CAMERON SKATTEBO

2022 - Stats Perform (2nd), AFCA (2nd), Associated Press (3rd)

Skattebo was the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year and a first team all-league choice. As a sophomore, he rushed for 1,373 yards and seven touchdowns and also caught 31 passes for 371 yards and three scores. Skattebo averaged 7.01 yards per carry which placed him second all-time at Sacramento State and was the best mark in the school's Div. I era. He ran for at least 100 yards in eight games, including a career high 201 at Eastern Washington. Skattebo also scored on a kickoff return and threw a touchdown pass against UIW to account for 12 touchdowns the season.

JACKSON SLATER

2022 - Associated Press (3rd)

2024 - AFCA (1st); Associated Press (1st); Stats Perform (1st); FCS Central (1st)

Slater played left guard during the 2022 regular season and then was moved to left tackle for the playoff games. He played a large role in the team setting a single-season rushing record with 3,163 yards.

In 2024, he became the first consensus All-American in school history, earning first team honors from four outlets. After playing in the Senior Bowl, he was selected by the Tennessee Titans in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

BRANDON WELDON

2022 - Associated Press (2nd)

Weldon started the final 38 games of his career. As a senior, he started all 11 regular season games at right guard before being moved to left guard for the FCS Playoffs. During the year, Sacramento State set a school single-season rushing record with 3,163 yards. Weldon was named first team all-Big Sky as a senior.

ARMON BAILEY

2023 - Stats Perform (3rd)

Bailey led the Hornets with 97 total tackles in 2023, including a team-high 8.0 tackles-for-loss. The two time first team all-Big Sky selection was one of the most consistent players on the team, recording at least four tackles in each of his 12 games. He had eight stops or more in eight games, including a season-high 11 tackles at Stanford and Idaho in back-to-back games. Bailey concluded his Sacramento State career ranked 14th in school history with 229 total tackles.

CAMERON BROUSSARD

2023 - Stats Perform (3rd)

Broussard started each of the team's regular season games and ended the year ranked second on the team with 73 total tackles. His season included recording double-digit tackles against Northern Colorado and Stanford, having five tackles in nine games and at least three in all of his 11 games. Broussard also had a pair of interceptions during the season and was credited with five pass breakups.

While there have been numerous pairs of brothers to play for the Hornets, Drew (left), Antone (center) and James (right) Bogetti are believed to be one of only two trios of brothers to each don a Hornet uniform in the FCS era. Drew was a defensive end, Antone played receiver and James was a linebacker and special teams standout. The other trio is Mike (1964-68), Pat (68-70) and Tim Clemons (70-72).
